Tigerpaw Recognizes ComSys with 2011 Prowling Tiger Award

Don Bugos Honored with Top Award at TAG Conference

BELLEVUE, NE AND SAN DIEGO, CA — March 24, 2011 — Tigerpaw Software, Inc., developer of the most comprehensive business building software for technology providers, congratulates Don Bugos of Communication Systems, Inc. dba ComSys as the winner of the 2011 Prowling Tiger Award.

Qualities of a Prowling Tiger:

- This Tiger is always looking for something more out their business demonstrating agility in implementing Tigerpaw into their entire business.
- A Prowling Tiger has shown strength in leadership by continually enabling their staff with training and resources to be successful using Tigerpaw Software on a daily basis.
- This tiger is always looking for new ways to improve how Tigerpaw serves the TAG members and is willing to share those suggestions for the greater good.
- When asked by his colleagues how to describe this tiger, he is described as “energetic,” and “intelligent” with a mind that never stops.
- This tiger has successfully implemented Tigerpaw in his sales, marketing, service and accounting departments. He is a Tiger on the prowl, always looking for more opportunities to improve the way they do business.

This year’s Prowling Tiger Award was presented at the TAG Member Conference held in March in San Antonio. TAG is an international organization of independently owned unified communications providers representing $400 million in annual sales.

“ComSys is one of TAG’s premier Members and we’re thrilled that they were recognized by Tigerpaw for their expert knowledge and sophistication,” said Brian Suerth, EVP & Partner of TAG. “Tigerpaw is the technology industry’s most comprehensive software solution that truly helps our Members advance their businesses. Members like Communication Systems are reaping the rewards of their relationship and hard work.”
